MAYOR JONES WILL WELCOME THE ELKS

Petersburg Expects to Entertain Great Number of That Fraternity.

LOCAL COMMITTEE BUSY

Suspensions Aroused and Body of Mrs. Parmelia Williamson May Be Exhumed.

The Times-Dispatch Bureau, 109 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., June 12.

Mayor Jones will deliver the address of welcome to the city to the State Association of Elks, which will hold its third annual session in Petersburg on June 15 and 17, and a member of Petersburg Lodge will welcome the visitors as guests. Reports received from the various lodges in the State indicate that the attendance at this reunion will be very large, aggregating some four or five hundred. The committee on decoration has requested the merchants on Sycamore Street to keep the electric lights in front of and in their stores burning on Wednesday and Thursday nights to brighten up that thoroughfare in honor of the occasion. The contract for the "Old Virginia barbecue," to be given at Cogswell's Point, on James River, has been awarded to V. St. Cloud, manager of the Stratford Hotel, an experienced caterer.

Light Sales of Tobacco.
The tobacco season is nearly over, and the offerings during the past two weeks were light. The sales of loose this week, as reported by Supervisor J. B. McCulloch, were 24,339 pounds, making aggregate sales for the season to date 6,405,865 pounds. It is possible that the total for the season may be increased to 7,000,000 pounds by later receipts. On account of the high prices obtained this year and last, a larger crop will be raised this year in this section.

Edward Emory, employed by the Virginia Passenger and Power Company, was shocked by a live wire yesterday while at work on one of the company's poles near the corner of Washington and Davis Streets, and fell to the ground. He was fortunately not seriously injured either by the electricity or the fall.

John Arthur Johnston to-day qualified as assistant postmaster, to which office he was recently appointed, and will enter on his duties on Monday. Two children of Mrs. Nellie Nugent, and four children of Mrs. Minnie Gray, after a hearing of the cases in court, were yesterday afternoon committed to the custody of the Children's Home

UNVEILED AT VICKSBURG

STATE OF GENERAL STEPHEN D. LEE.

Society, in Richmond, and were taken in charge by the Rev. Mr. Mayhew. The children embrace both boys and girls. Charles R. Jones, negro, was brought to the city last evening from the Homeopathic Asylum for the Insane in Middleburg, N. Y., and was committed to the Central State Hospital for treatment. Jones was taken into the New York asylum on May 19, when it was found that his home was in Danville, Va., and he was consequently sent to this State.

Miss Nellie T. Powers, a brilliant young musician, daughter of J. T. Powers, gave a delightful recital before a large audience in A. P. Hill Camp Hall last night, and was heartily congratulated on her success in both the vocal and instrumental numbers on the program. The monthly meeting of the Baptist Sunday-School Association of this city and vicinity, will be held Sunday afternoon in the Second Baptist Church
